

KEY TO ARTWORKS AND AUCTION VALUES

A. Peter Paul Rubens (1611–12) Massacre of the Innocents.

This large oil painting on a biblical theme was attributed to a pupil in the 18th century and was only rediscovered in 2002. It sold for $76.7 million. At the time it that the third highest price ever for a painting and the highest auction price ever for an old master. It now hangs in the Art Gallery of Ontario.

B. Paul Gauguin (1892) Nafea Faa Ipoipo (When Will You Marry?)

Until 2015 the oil painting was at the Fondation Beyeler in Riehen, Switzerland. It was sold to a museum in Quatar for $300 million. This was the highest price paid for any painting!

C. Koko the Gorilla, Bird

A Limited Edition of 3000 prints of this painting are available on the Gorilla Foundation website for $350. Each comes with a certificate Authentication signed by Dr. Patterson.

D. Jean-Michel Basquiat (1982) Untitled.

The painting was sold for $110.5 million on May 2017 to a Japanese billionaire. This was the highest price ever paid for a work by an American artist and the sixth most expensive ever sold at auction.

E. Cindy Sherman (1981) Untitled #96

In 2011, a print of this photograph, which is part of the artist's Centerfold series, sold for $3.89 million, At that time, it was the most expensive photograph ever sold.

F. Fossil knuckle-bone.

G. Adolf Hitler (1919) Watercolor.

In 2015 the Weidler Auction House in Nuremberg sold 14 signed Hitler artworks for a total of $ 450,000.